

To Helen-Claire Moyle

American Lullaby

Words and Music by Gladys Rich

Grazioso 1 2 3

mf legatissimo

mp 4 5 6

Hush-a - bye, you sweet lit-tle ba - by, And don't you cry - an-y

p

7 8 9

more; Dad-dy is down at his stock-brok-er's of - fice A -

Copyright, 1932, by G. Schirmer (Inc.)
International Copyright Secured

10 11 12

keep-ing the wolf— from the door.

13 14 15

Nurs -ie will raise the win-dow shade high, So you can see— the 16 17 18

cars whiz-zing by.— Home in a hur - ry each Dad-dy must fly— To a

poco accel. f a tempo mp

poco accel. f a tempo

19 20 21

ba - by like you.

22 23

mp Hush - a - bye, you sweet lit - tle ba - by, And 24 25 26

close those pret - ty blue eyes. Moth - er has gone to her week - ly bridge par - ty To get her wee ba - by the prize.

27 28 29

30 mf 31 32

Nurs-ie will turn the ra-di-o on,—

33 34

So you can hear— a sleep-y-time song,—

35 36

Sung by a la - dy whose poor heart must long— For a rall. mf mp a tempo rall. a tempo

37 38 39

ba - by like you!

dim. e rall. 2. h.